

HORREUR I

Put some HORROR in your core French class. Four blood-curdling tales of horror for young adults, grades 7-8 make up this spine-tingling French reader.

Written for the new curriculum:

- Word length: Each of the four stories is 300-500 words
- Activities at the end of each story target curriculum outcomes,
- Curriculum-appropriate structures,
- Features four short stories, activities and a French-English lexicon
- Bone-chilling illustrations add to the fun!

Here is what Core French students had to say:

“This is a good story”
– Alison, grade 8, Nor’Westerview school.

“Make a lot of horror stories. Kids like horror stories”
– Madore, grade 7, Nor’Westerview school.

“I think it was a good written story it was fun to read”
“The story was excellent. I think in class we should do more of these”
– Vicki, grade 8, Kakabeka falls district school

“Les stories est magnifique” – Julie, grade 8
